FirstCapital Bank of Texas, N.A. breaks ground on a new branch in Amarillo

Amarillo, TX—FirstCapital Bank of Texas has announced they will open a new branch in Amarillo at 3900 Soncy Road and will hold a ground breaking ceremony at the site on Friday, February 1st, at 10:00 am.

“We are very excited about this new Amarillo main banking location and feel that it will enhance our visibility, service delivery and will be convenient for our customers,” said Greg Burgess, recently named Chief Lending Officer of the company, and former Amarillo market president. “We are committed to providing the best possible banking services to our customers and this new banking facility will allow us to do just that.”

FirstCapital Bank has been a part of the Amarillo community since 2002. FirstCapital Bank also has offices in Midland and Lubbock, TX.

The new branch facility will feature state of the art teller services, drive-up teller lanes, ATM capability as well as Commercial, Consumer and Mortgage lenders on-site. FirstCapital Bank team members say they are excited for the move and look forward to continuing to serve the Amarillo community from their new home. Burgess said the facility is scheduled to open in December 2013.

Western Builders of Amarillo, Inc. will be the general contractor. Lavin Associates, Inc. serves as project Architects.
